

MIAMI HERALD

APR 19 1964

U.S. Will Pay for DAR Report

DAUGHTERS of the American Revolution have escaped the government's economy ax.

The taxpayers will put up $4,290.86 this year to pay for the printing of 1,500 copies of the DAR's 66th annual report.

The paper-bound books, costing about $2.80 apiece, will be printed as official Senate documents.

* * *